SURVIVAL MANUAL

This survival manual will prepare you to experience the most provocative (and hilarious) new plays heading straight for our nation's capital.

DON'T IGNORE THE WARNING SIGNS!

Take your life into your own hands, gather your loved ones close, hoard some bottled water and duct tape, and get ready for the ultimate conversation:

Does our civilization have an expiration date?
And what comes next?

WARNING:

EXCESSIVE HOBBYING MAY SUMMON RAPTURE.

A BRIGHT NEW BOISE

By Samuel D. Hunter, Directed by John Vreeke

OCTOBER 10 – NOVEMBER 6, 2011

Prepare yourself: in the parking lot of a mega-craft store in Idaho, someone is summoning the Rapture. Samuel D. Hunter's heartbreakingly funny reckoning between a father and son will shatter your preconceptions about the sacred, the profane, and the secret lives of big-box retailers.

“This clear-eyed comedy will lift your heart.”

–Time Out New York

CAUTION:

SKETCH COMEDY IS HAZARDOUS TO YOUR HEALTH.

SPOILER ALERT: EVERYBODY DIES

Written and Performed by Chicago's The Second City

DECEMBER 6, 2011 – JANUARY 8, 2012

Laugh while you can 'cause things ain't gettin' better. Next season, Woolly artists fly to Chicago to work with The Second City's classic comedy wizards in an unprecedented collaboration. Their mission? Bring back to Washington the most gleeful anti-holiday celebration of doom ever.

“Packs a lot more wit than any episode of the past several years of Saturday Night Live.”

– The Washington Post

HAZARD:

CONTENTS SHOULD NOT BE CONSUMED WITH WALL STREET SWINE.

CIVILIZATION (ALL YOU CAN EAT)

By Jason Grote, Directed by Howard Shalwitz

FEBRUARY 13 – MARCH 11, 2012

In the battle between man and nature, who ultimately survives? Four hungry friends from grad school face the dawn of the recession in this scathing satire of American enterprise and ingenuity. But while they're busy cooking up schemes for love and success, the beasts of agribusiness are closing in...

“Grote believes in stepping boldly through the looking glass to restore imagination to theatre.” –Back Stage

BEWARE:

TIME TRAVELLING DRAG QUEENS
INVARIABLY CAUSE AROUSAL.

ARIAS WITH A TWIST

Created by Joey Arias and Basil Twist, Directed by Basil Twist

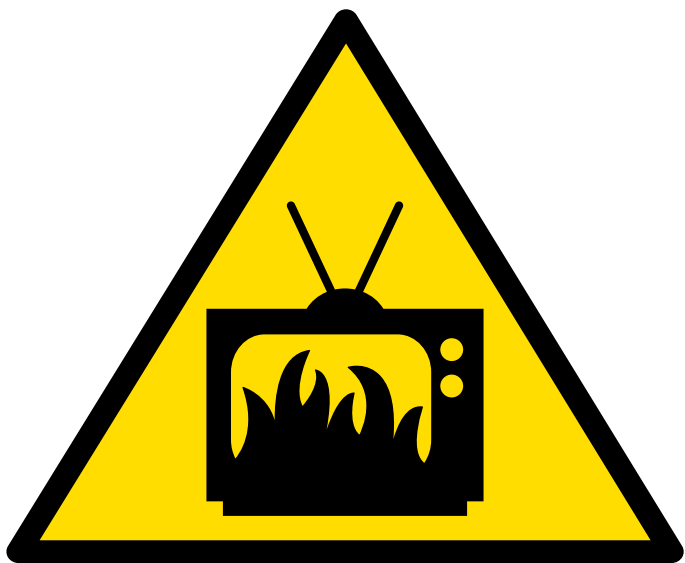

APRIL 4 – MAY 6, 2012

When aliens abduct a large drag queen and drop her in a teeny Garden of Eden, will she have enough room to fall from grace? International cabaret sensation Joey Arias and OBIE Award-winning puppeteer Basil Twist team up for an eye-popping musical tour, from Genesis to risqué universes beyond imagination.

“Eat your heart out, Madonna.” – The New York Times

DANGER:

EXPOSURE TO POP CULTURE MAY CAUSE APOCALYPSE.

MR. BURNS, A POST-ELECTRIC PLAY

By Anne Washburn, Directed by Steven Cosson

Music by Michael Friedman

MAY 28 – JULY 1, 2012

Armageddon has hit, and all that remains is our nostalgia for a lost pop culture. In Anne Washburn's riveting vision of post-apocalyptic America, survivors invent a new entertainment industry from the ashes of the old. With music by OBIE Award-winner Michael Friedman, their enterprise gives redemptive new meaning to the pop hits and cartoon icons we can't live without.

“Writing well is hard enough, but this fiercely imaginative dramatist has her English and eats it, too.”

–Time Out New York
